PHARMACOLOGY

A Publication of the American Society for Pharmacology and Experimental Therapeutics

To maximize your research, humanize your mice.

Taconic's innovative portfolio of humanized mouse models is helping to revitalize basic research and bring greater predictability to compound evaluation. Humanization can save time, cut costs, and accelerate your research. Taconic's groundbreaking tADMET™ portfolio, for example, offers the fastest possible timelines and far greater predictive power.

Taconic. Smart. Very Smart.
